

Partners In Care

At the Fly A Kite Foundation, we recognize that families cannot manage pediatric cancer alone. And you shouldn't have to. Whether it's financial challenges, travel, housing, cleaning, medication assistance or just needing an understanding shoulder to cry on, these support charities are available to guide, support and advocate for families like yours. Get the help and support you and your family need – because you are not alone.

Pediatric Brain Tumor Consortium

PBTC's mission is to contribute rapidly and effectively to the understanding and cure of these tumors through the conduct of multi-center, multidisciplinary, innovative studies with designs and analyses based on uniformly high quality statistical science. PBTC's mission is to identify through laboratory and clinical science superior treatment strategies for children with brain cancers.

pbtc.org

Coalition Against Childhood Cancer

CAC2 effectively advances a variety of childhood cancer causes by unifying the childhood cancer community through broad-based coordinated action and collaboration that leverages the strengths and expertise of its individual members and minimizes duplication of effort. The primary values underlying CAC2 are to put the children and their families first in everything we do and to support organizations active in the fight against childhood cancer.

cac2.org

Cancer in the Family Relief Fund

The Chad Tough Foundation

Our mission is to support children in their time of need. Extracurricular activities are critical during a family's time of crisis. We provide normalcy to a child while his or her parent is focusing on treatment and recovery. Whether a family is experiencing a financial crisis resulting from a diagnosis, or they just need some extra funds for "luxuries" because every extra dollar is going to medication costs... we want to help.

cancerfamilyrelieffund.org

Ronald McDonald House Charities

RMHC can help lessen the burden for nearly nine million families each and every year. Our network of local Chapters have been making children happier and healthier by keeping families together – giving them a place to rest and refresh. A place that feels like home. These programs, tailored to meet the urgent needs of each community, can now be found in more than 62 countries and regions across the globe.

rmhc.org

RxHope

RxHope is exactly what its name implies...a helping hand to people in need in obtaining critical medications that they would normally have trouble affording. We act as your advocate in making the patient assistance program journey easier and faster by supplying vital information and help.

makingheadway.org

Children's Neuroblastoma Cancer Foundation

Our mission: to help fund a cure for neuroblastoma. Through the generous donations of the business community, families and friends, we create resources for families, educate the public and drive greater awareness – and funding – for neuroblastoma. We provide a forum for patients and families to share their experiences. Our national educational programs bring together clinicians, researchers and medical experts to support our mission.

cnchhope.org

The Assistance Fund

The Assistance Fund created to make access to medications a reality for patients who are critically or chronically ill putting us at the forefront of service delivery, speed to therapy and compliance to therapy. We envision the day when no person goes without medication due to an inability to pay. To provide critically or chronically ill individuals with access to advanced therapies through a continuum of services and programs, including education and financial aid.

theassistancefund.org

American Childhood Cancer Organization

American Childhood Cancer Organization (ACCO) began in 1970 by a group of parents whose children had been diagnosed with cancer. They came together to lobby for more research, and to support each other through the diagnosis and treatment of this life threatening disease at a time when very few children survived. Today, ACCO is one of the largest grassroots, national organizations dedicated to improving the lives of children and adolescents with cancer and their families.

acco.org

NeedyMeds

NeedyMeds maintains a website of free information on programs that help people who can't afford medications and healthcare costs. More than 1.3 million patients, family members, healthcare professionals, social workers and patient advocates use the NeedyMeds website each year. We update data on over 5,000 assistance programs, 13,000 free/low-cost/sliding scale clinics and 1,500 drug discount coupons.

needymeds.org

The Patient Access Network

The Patient Access Network (PAN) Foundation offers help and hope to people with chronic or life-threatening illnesses for whom cost limits access to breakthrough medical treatments. The PAN Foundation envisions a society in which every individual can access needed medical care, offering hope for a healthy tomorrow.

panfoundation.org

The Partnership for Prescription Assistance

The Partnership for Prescription Assistance helps qualifying patients without prescription drug coverage get the medicines they need by matching them with the right assistance programs. Many will get their medications free or nearly free. The Partnership for Prescription Assistance will help you find the program that's right for you, free of charge. Remember, you will never be asked for money from the PPA.

pparx.org

Good Days

Good Days exists to improve the health and quality of life of patients with cancer, or other life-altering conditions. Our mission is to ensure no one has to choose between getting the medication they need and affording the necessities of everyday living. We help patients who have limited financial means get access to the medications they need. Our program helps qualified patients pay their insurance co-pays so they can get access to prescription medications.

mygooddays.org

Patient AirLift Services

Patient AirLift Services is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that arranges free air transportation for individuals requiring medical diagnosis, treatment or follow-up who cannot afford or are unable to fly commercially. PALS also arranges volunteer flights for family members of patients as compassionate missions, to ensure patients have support when they are away home for long periods.

palservices.org

The National Patient Travel Center

The National Patient Travel Center provides information about all forms of charitable, long-distance medical transportation and provides referrals to all appropriate sources of help available in the national charitable medical transportation network. National Patient Travel Center ensures that no financially-needy patient is denied access to distant specialized medical evaluation, diagnosis or treatment for lack of a means of long-distance medical transportation.

patienttravel.org

LifeLine Pilots

LifeLine Pilots facilitates FREE transportation for such medical needs as on-going medical treatments, diagnosis and follow-up care. Volunteer Pilots donate all flight expenses and their time. Volunteer Pilots can also choose to assist passengers with humanitarian situations. Caregiver exchanges, a final wish visiting an ill relative, taking children to special needs camps are examples of the missions for which LifeLine Pilots has facilitated FREE air transportation.

lifelinepilots.org

Hope Lodge®

Hope Lodge

Each Hope Lodge offers cancer patients and their caregivers a free place to stay when their best hope for effective treatment may be in another city. Not having to worry about where to stay or how to pay for lodging allows guests to focus on getting well. Hope Lodge provides a nurturing, home-like environment where guests can retreat to private rooms or connect with others.

cancer.org

Joe's House

Our repository of lodging information provides a centralized list of lodging catering to patients and family members. Users may search for accommodations by city or proximity to a cancer treatment center or hospitals. Joe's House works with hotels and other lodging facilities to centralize inventory and provide medical discount to cancer patients.

joeshouse.org

Air Care Alliance

More than sixty groups have volunteer pilots who will fly patients for care or provide other flights or aviation services to help those in need or serve our communities. If you are seeking free air transportation or aviation services you can send an inquiry to each appropriate organization in one easy step by providing us the necessary information about your transportation needs.

aircarealliance.org

Corporate Angel Network

Corporate Angel Network is the only charitable organization in the United States whose sole mission is to help cancer patients access the best possible treatment for their specific type of cancer by arranging free travel to treatment across the country using empty seats on corporate jets. This not only improves the patients' chances of survival but at the same time, it reduces their emotional stress, physical discomfort and financial burden.

corpangelnetwork.org

The Healthcare Hospitality Network Inc.

The Healthcare Hospitality Network, Inc. (HHN) is a nationwide professional association of nearly 200 unique, nonprofit organizations that provide lodging and support services to patients, families and their loved ones who are receiving medical treatment far from their home communities. The mission of HHN is to support homes that help and heal to be more effective in their service to patients and families.

hhnetwork.org

Air Charity Network

Air Charity Network is an organization that provides access for people in need who are seeking free air transportation to specialized health care facilities due to family, community, or national crisis.

Air Charity Network serves all 50 states and its volunteer pilots utilize their own aircraft, fuel and time to provide free air transportation to medical facilities for citizens who are financially distressed or otherwise unable to travel on public transportation.

aircharitynetwork.org

Angel Airline Samaritans

The mission and purpose of Angel Airline Samaritans is to ensure that no cancer patient is denied access to distant specialized medical evaluation, diagnosis or treatment for lack of a means of long-distance commercial airline transportation.

angelairlinesamaritans.org

CancerCare®

CancerCare® provides limited financial assistance to people affected by cancer. As a nonprofit organization, funding depends on the sources of support we receive at any given time. If we do not currently have funding to assist you, our professional oncology social workers will always work to refer you to other financial assistance resources. Please check our website periodically for funding updates.

cancercares.org

Cancer Financial Assistance Coalition

The Cancer Financial Assistance Coalition (CFAC) is a group of national organizations that provide financial help to patients. CFAC provides a searchable database of financial resources.

cancerfac.org

The HealthWell Foundation

The HealthWell Foundation provides financial assistance to eligible individuals to cover coinsurance, co-payments, health care premiums and deductibles for certain medications and therapies. If you've been prescribed a medication and your insurance company covers it, but you still cannot afford the coinsurance or co-payment required, we may be able to assist you by paying for part of your costs associated with the medication.

healthwellfoundation.org